

ATLANTIC SPAIN & PORTUGAL OCTOBER 9TH - 16TH, 2020

Private bus and driver (seats 28).
Breakfast, lunch and dinners included. All of them gourmet style and featuring regional and traditional cuisine of the regions visited.

The Atlantic coast of Spain and Portugal have seen the cultures of the Tartesios, Iberians, Phoenicians, Greeks, Romans, Arabs,... A mix of cultures that has shaped towns and people.

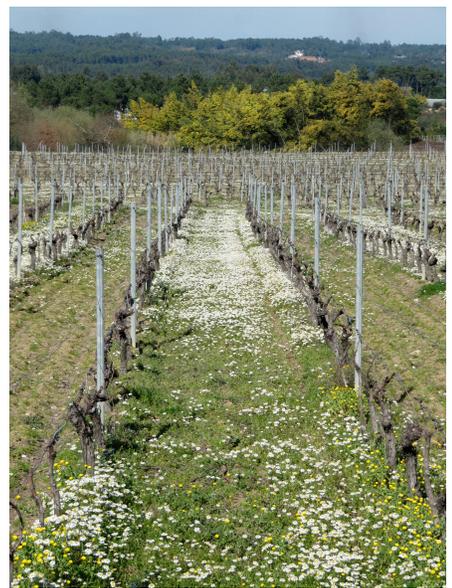

In the south Atlantic coast of Spain, we'll visit CADIZ, a town that was the "Cape Canaveral" of new land explorations in the XIV and XV centuries. We will also visit Jerez de la Frontera, home of Sherry wine, where we'll learn about these very special wines and enjoy a fantastic meal with our winery friends as we taste through their extensive line of Sherry.

As we travel west towards Portugal, we'll stop in Jabugo, one of the most famous towns for Iberico ham and Iberico pork products. We'll learn about how this unique products are made at 5 JOTAS, possibly the most iconic Jamon Iberico producers in Spain.

Once in Portugal, we'll be in the Alentejo region, where we will visit 2 renown wineries as we cross over to the coast: Lisboa!

Lisboa is a fantastic city, we'll have some free time to explore it with interesting recommendations.

As we travel north, we'll visit Obidos on the coast north of Lisboa and a Dao Appellation wine producer before making it to the Douro region, one of the most beautiful wine appellations in the world. We'll then follow the river to Oporto, the town that gives name to the famous wines.
